The Globe's 4th Birthday.

This issue makes the Globe a four-year old.

We are comfortably located in a new building, all paid for, have installed a new cylinder press and a lot of new type and material since our last birthday, and by hard work, patience push and careful management, have built up one of the best newspaper business in the state. Our presses are all run by electricity, a 2-horse power motor doing the work.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our patrons and friends for their liberal support in the past and solicit their future patronage that we may be able to make other improvements and better our paper as time rolls on.

Our next move will be to install a linotype and a large, new paper cutter. We're going to get them. If we had what's justly due us in delinquent subscriptions, could induce a number of people of this city and vicinity, who ought to support THEIR HOME PAPER, to get on our list, we'd have nearly enough to purchase these needed improvements.

Boost for the Bear River Valley and subscribe for the Globe.

Scissored From Youth's Companion

Holidays which comes on Saturday or Monday are especially grateful to those who hope to enjoy them, for they give two free days in succession. This year there are three such that are generally observed, Lincoln's birthday, Memorial day and Fourth of July. Christmas comes on Sunday, but Monday will be observed as the legal holiday, and if that is included, it makes four. In such states as observe Labor day on the first Monday in September, there will be another double day of freedom from work.

The Secretary of the Navy calls attention to the charge in the character of ships-of-war and of naval warfare by the remark that what is needed in the navy now is not men who can "shin" a mast, but men who are skilled-mechanics. A modern battle-ship is a floating machine-shop.

Why Boys are Late for School.

Five minutes chasing butterflies
Way over, off the road;
Five minutes watching Willie Price
Do tricks with his pet toad;
Five minutes helping Gibbsie get His pig back in the pen—
I wonder if its school-time yet?
I guess I'm late again.

I think I lost a little time
Because I walked so slow
Where Johnny Watkins lost a dime
A day or two ago.
It's underneath the leaves somewhere,
And Johnny feels so blue
That I just stopped a minute there
Because he asked me to.
And then it rained a little bit,
And Dominick McPhee
Had his straw hat, and had to sit
Under a good thick tree,
Or else he'd get it spoiled and get
The top all swelled. You see,
A straw hat is not safe to wet—
His kind, especially.
And after we had saved his hat
From getting spoiled for him,
A big woodpecker came and sat
Up on a rotten limb;
And Johnny said when they're about,
Somebody told the boys,
You see a lot of worms come out
To see what makes the noise.
So when we boys all stayed about
A couple minutes more,
In hopes to see the worms come out
Which he was rapping for;
But after he went b-r-r-r and
b-r-r-r
A while, he flew away,
And Johnny said he guessed
there were
No worms at home that day.
So then we hurried up, and ran
As fast as we could run,
To get there just as school began
And just as it's begun
I had to run back to the tree
To get my slate and rule;
And yet the teacher cannot see
Why boys are late for school!

Like Attracts Like.

Did you ever think that the thing you are looking for is looking for you; that it is the very law of affinities to get together?

If you are course in your tastes, vicious in your tendencies, you do not have to work very hard to get with course, vicious people; they are seeking you by the very law of attraction. Everywhere affinities are seeking one another. When boys and girls go to the city for the first time to seek positions, how quickly they find their affinities. Those who want to get with good people, those who aspire and are ambitious to get on and up in the world, very quickly find those who are trying to do the same things.

Those who are naturally wild, and those who wish to dissipate, do not have to look very far or very long to find those with the same course, animal tastes.

Watch country youths who go to the city to seek their fortunes.

Some seek the Young Men's Christian Associations; some the churches; some the saloons and the dance-halls. Those with musical tastes very quickly get into a musical atmosphere. Those with artistic natures gravitate naturally to other artistic temperaments.

Our thoughts and motives, our desires, our longings, are forces which find their fellows. —Success Magazine.

LOOSE COINS IN MAIL BOXES.

The following instructions on collecting loose coins in rural delivery boxes has been received by Postmaster Eva C Wilcox. Washington, D. C. Jan. 25, 1910

"The Postmaster: In view of the extent to which the practice of placing loose coins in boxes by rural patrons has grown and the delay in the delivery and collection of mail and the hardship imposed on rural carriers incident thereon, you are informed that, commencing February 15, rural letter carriers will not be required to collect loose coins from rural mail boxes.

"Patrons should enclose coins in an envelope, wrap them securely in a piece of paper, or deposit them in a coin-holding receptacle, so they can be easily and quickly taken from boxes, and carriers will be required to lift such coins, and where accompanied by mail for dispatch, attach the requisite stamps.

Respectfully,
(Signed) P. V. DE GRAW,
"Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General."

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by All Dealers.
